MAASFEP honors up to two schools per Congressional district that have made exceptional growth towards closing the achievement gap and raising achievement for all students.
Provide a snapshot of your school and its improvement efforts over the past two year.
Document two years of growth on state assessments (150 words or less).
Present evidence from at least one other measure that shows that the school has made progress toward closing the gap and while raising achievement for all students (150 words or less).

Nominations will be accepted until December 1, 2010 and will be announced in January 2011. Schools will be honored at the Spring 2011 MAASFEP Conference.
